

Emerging Psychologists Program

Background of the Award

The program is designed to support and encourage young psychologists in India who demonstrate exceptional promise in psychological research. It provides a prestigious platform for emerging psychologists to present their work at the NAOP Annual Convention.

Eligibility for the Award

- Candidates must have completed their Ph.D.
- They should be below 35 years of age as of the start date of the conference.

Application Procedure

Applications can be submitted directly by interested candidates or through nominations by senior colleagues. The application documents must include the following:

- An updated CV.
- Soft copies of two of the candidate's best publications.
- An abstract of the paper to be presented at the Annual Convention.

All application documents should be emailed to Prof. Tushar Singh, (tushar.psycho@bhu.ac.in), on or before the submission deadline

Award Procedure

1. The Academy will form a selection committee to identify up to five scholars to attend the NAOP Annual Convention and present their papers in a dedicated session.
2. Shortlisted candidates will receive a participation certificate, and their conference registration fees will be waived by NAOP.
