Workshop Guidelines

Facilitators

- Each workshop may have a maximum of two facilitators.
- Facilitators must be recognized experts or experienced practitioners in their respective fields, ensuring content credibility and practical insights.

Facilitator Expertise

- Facilitators must demonstrate alignment with the proposed topic through their expertise, qualifications, or significant work in the area. Kindly attach your CV along with the proposal.

Duration

Workshops must follow one of the two formats:

- Half-day sessions: 4 hours (including breaks).
- Full-day sessions: 7 hours (including breaks).

Relevance

- Workshop topics must align with the 34th NAOP conference "Contemporary Patterns and Future Trajectories in Psychological Sciences: Advancing from Interdisciplinarity to Transdisciplinarity".
- Interdisciplinary topics integrating psychology with other domains, drawn from the 27 conference themes, will be prioritized.
- Workshops should contribute to academic enrichment, practical skill-building, or professional development.

Workshop Proposal Requirements

- Proposals must include:
 - An introductory session plan with workshop objectives.
 - Detailed descriptions of interactive activities, such as case studies, group discussions, problem-solving exercises, or demonstrations.
 - A structured timeline indicating the flow of content, activities, and scheduled breaks.

Learning Outcomes

- Specify at least three learning outcomes participants will achieve by the end of the session. These should highlight skill acquisition, knowledge enhancement, or the application of learned concepts.

Participant Engagement

- Participation is capped at 25–30 individuals per session to ensure meaningful interactions.
- Workshops will not proceed if fewer than 15 participants register.

Preparatory Materials

- Any preparatory materials (e.g., pre-reads, case studies, or worksheets) must be shared with NAOP at least one week before the workshop.

Post-Workshop Feedback

- Facilitators are required to distribute post-workshop feedback forms to collect participant insights on the content, delivery, and overall workshop experience.

Proposal Evaluation

- The final decision regarding workshop approvals rests with the 34th NAOP committee.
- Only four workshop slots are available. Proposals will be assessed for quality, relevance, and alignment with the conference theme.
